REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

During the year of 1921 the following cases of communicable diseases have been reported to the Board of Health:

Scarlet Fever, 4 cases; Chicken Pox, 21; Ophthalmia Neonatorum, 1; Pulmonary Tuberculosis, 1.

With the exception of the epidemic of Chicken Pox at Griswoldville during the fall there have been but few cases of contagious disease this year and the general health conditions have been better than usual.

We have received valuable assistance from the district nurse in a number of cases and we trust that in having the advantages of a school nurse the coming year that further advantages will be obtained.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS WHITE,
R. E. PURRINGTON,
E. M. DWIGHT,
J. W. CRAM, M. D., Sec. and
Agent of the Board.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

To the Trustees of the Griswold Memorial Library:

Herewith is submitted the annual report of the Librarian for the year ending December 31, 1921.

The opening days of the Library have continued the same during the year, but, beginning with January 1922, the Monday afternoon and evening opening will be changed to Wednesday. Mrs. Jennie Bardwell has served as assistant.

The total circulation during the year has been 5,670 volumes, adult, 4,046, juvenile, 1,624, an increase of 428 volumes over last year.

We have received as gifts from the Massachusetts State Library Commission thirty-one books, most of which are juvenile, and from other sources thirteen books. Seventy-five books have been rebound during the year.

We are indebted to Mrs. Cram for her interest in collecting Colrain Town Reports from 1881 to the present date. These are bound in four volumes and are in the Library for reference.

A new book case has been added to the Library equipment, thus providing much needed additional shelf room.

The following magazines may be found on the tables for circulation during the coming year: Harper's, Atlantic Monthly, American Boy, American, National Geographic, Good Housekeeping, Review of Reviews, Delineator, Ladies' Home Journal, Woman's Home Companion, Modern Priscilla, Popular Science Monthly, Little Folks, and St. Nicholas.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA L. READ,

Librarian.
